Enter The Corn Growing Contest.

As planting time is almost here, and we have not yet received the names of as many boys and young men as ought to be in this contest, I want to urge the boys from 10 to 20 years of age to enter into this contest. Surely it will be a good thing for you and there is going to be a good list of prizes offered by the banks and business men of our county, besides a $100.00 scholarship offered by the Frisco Railroad. These prizes are worth working for, and it does not cost you a cent to try. Send me your name and age and get into the game. Let us make use of the opportunities before us.

Yours truly,

B. F. SIDES,

Supt. Contest Work.

Davy Crocket said, "Be sure you are right and then go ahead." We say,

If it rains or if its fair,

Keep a pullin'!

Though it's winter or it's May,

Keep a pullin'!

If you are in the ring to stay,

Keep a pullin'!

Though you can't see e'en a ray,

Keep a pullin'!

Sun is bound to shine some day,

Got to come 'fore long your way, —

Keep a pullin'!

If your runners strike bare ground,

Keep a pullin'!

Don't give up, and don't go round,

Keep a pullin'!

S'pose you haven't got a cent,

Keep a pullin'!

Gettin' busted ain't no crime,

Keep a pullin'!

Glory' mighty—That's the time,

Grit will make a man sublime,

Keep a pullin'!

Sympathy is just a fake,

Keep a pullin'!

No one feels it when you ache,

Keep a pullin'!

Only this is worth 'er while;

And you'll find it helps a pile;

When the wind blows hard just smile,

And keep a pullin'!
